

WILEY

21st of December 2016, Cape Town.

We would like to express our deepest sympathies to the family, friends and many colleagues of Agatha Kabugu of whose passing we learned this morning. We are deeply saddened and know that a great many of those in the worlds of publishing, academia and information science will be feeling this loss as we do.

We are all very lucky to work in roles that allow us to impact on the lives of learners and those who will go on to make a difference in countries throughout the world. This is especially important in countries such as Kenya. The dedicated work which is done by members of the library community, especially embodied by those associated to organisations such as KLISC, effect so many. Agatha's passion and dedication was always so inspiring.

While Wiley's interaction with Agatha was focused on the consortium side, we have all had regular meetings together over the last few years and have at all times appreciated the commitment and calm grace which she brought to her role as Treasurer at KLISC and Librarian at the University of Nairobi. Agatha has been a colleague and friend to Wiley and for this we will always be extremely grateful.

At this very difficult time, we wish strength to all who knew her.

Jonathan Wynne, James Fletcher & Penny de la Plaine.
