INTERNATIONAL DAY OF THE WORLD'S INDIGENOUS PEOPLES: 9TH AUGUST

August 9 was first proclaimed International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples by the United Nations in 1994 to promote and protect the rights of the world's Indigenous population. This day also commemorates the achievements and contributions that Indigenous people make in the world. August 9 also marks the first time the UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations met in Geneva in 1982. This year's theme is "Bridging the Gap: Implementing the Rights of Indigenous Peoples."
