

SERIES, CLASSES & SUB - CLASSES	DESCRIPTION OF SERIES & THEIR COVERING DATES	REFERENCE	NO. PIECES QUANTITY & LOCATION
1	This includes information and data that has been computerized. There are also three internal memos. This packet has been referred by Mr. Kimani as Sue's computer and was done at Carleton University between 1972 and 1973	KIM/1/11/1-13	BOX 23 FF1
2	University of Nairobi computing centre information on services by R.J.P. Scott June 1972; 16pp. plus correspondence in the period March 1974 and memos of May 1972 relating to the computing centre and sent by Douglas cook. One of the memos is to all computer users from the manager of the centre and the other one is to Mr. Kimani, again from the manager.		FF2
3	An incomplete detailed description of the data bank. This is part of a larger piece and begins with page 13 running to page 74. No date.		FF 3
4	Computer processing of Fort hall data. 5pp. typed. This is a detailed descriptive list of the way in which the data has been analyzed file by file.		FF 4
5	List of data on cards sent to Dr. Kimani and description of the file organization by secondary sources. These are two copies each and some have been scribbled on the sides. The description is by file, series and boxes. Though undated it stages by years. 5-8 pp. each		FF5
6	List of maps and their reference numbers together with those of villages of Murang'a district by location to sub-location level.		FF 6
7	The coding system by rank order 12 handwritten pages of scanty coding.		FF 7
8	Questions pertaining to perception in various files with few notes and markings on the list of computer processing of Fort hall data.		FF 8

9	Data collection procedures for the various files. These are typewritten papers with a mass of scribbled notes on the various data processes that were observed.		FF 9
10	Data collection procedures for the 'Duka' file.		FF 10
11	Codes for goods and other produce in 'dukas' and other related information on 'dukas'. Also notes on the coding system in general.		FF 11
12	Questionnaires and notes on questionnaires.		FF 12
13	Maps sketches, lists, graphs, and figures and some samples of forms (blank)		FF 13