

SERIES, CLASSES & SUB - CLASSES	DESCRIPTION OF SERIES & THEIR COVERING DATES	REFERENCE	NO. PIECES QUANTITY & LOCATION
7	ACADEMIC PAPERS BY S.M. KIMANI These include published and unpublished papers seminar papers, papers read at conferences, drafts of incomplete papers, notes and frameworks of research papers. There is an amount of repetition as in case where larger papers have been broken down into short ones and vice versa. No effort has been made to combine or separate any of the papers or drafts and any original arrangement has been observed. All the dated pieces are noted but others are not dated. There is no significance in the order in which the papers have been listed in these series. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Urbanization and growth centers with notes and illustrations.</li> <li>2. Spatial analysis in regional development and planning in Africa. 27pp. with biblio. and illus.</li> <li>3. Location and functional structure of shopping centres in Nairobi.</li> <li>4. Planning problems in Nairobi, 3 pp. this is an outline of a lecture delivered to the sociology students in univ. college Nairobi, cir. 1968.</li> <li>5. Role of growth centres in rural development. Aug 1973 IDS working paper no. 116, 72.pp.</li> <li>6. Growth centres and rural development in Kenya, Thika, Kenya, Aug. 1973. Co-authored with D.R.F. Taylor. 100pp. (3 copies in library).</li> <li>7. Spatial distribution of size of regional parliaments: a geographical study of the optimal size of parliament. Term paper, State Univ. of Iowa, Jan, 1965, 3.pp. in Political geography.</li> <li>8. Rural development in Kenya. A synthesis of theory and application, 22pp. with 3 more pages of notes. Aug., 1973.</li> <li>9. Growth centers: a case study of Muranga district Kenya- outline. 4pp. typed on date.</li> </ol>	KIM/1/7/1-29	BOX 19-20 FF 1 FF 2 FF 3 FF4 FF 5 FF 6 FF 7 FF 8 FF 9

	10. Nairobi urban study. Dec 1970. This ff has five separate drafts on Nairobi urban study. These are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Student employment programme. 5pp.</li> <li>b) Suggested initial probe study areas: with a checklist of desirable features for evaluation. 3pp. 14/7/70.</li> <li>c) Constraints of continued growth by accretion: an evaluation of models. 3pp. 26/6/70.</li> <li>d) Draft checklist for suggested prob studies: an evaluation of alternative growth areas. 3pp. 10/6/70.</li> <li>e) Alternative growth models for Nairobi's long term future. 3. pp. 11/6/70. All typed.</li> </ul> 11. Rural development in Kenya (?) this is a framework of a paper with no specific title. It has notes on clippings from what may be a bigger piece on the subject stated above. Large sections have been cancelled and reviewed in pencil but most of it is otherwise typed. Pagination is a little haphazard. 12. Minimum services and infrastructure necessary for a fully developed service centre by typed, with notes on afterthoughts. 3pp. no date. 13. A strategy for retail centers. 5 pp. no date. 14. Economic and social development 13 pp. no date. 15. Spatial structure of land values in Nairobi, Kenya. Published April 1972 in a German journal of economic and social geography. 14pp. 2 copies and the draft with an abstract. 16. The structure of land ownership in Nairobi. 24 pp. published in Canadian journal of African studies v. 1, iii (1972). 17. Spatial analysis in regional development and planning in Africa. 30 pp. to tables. 18. Growth centers and rural development in Kenya with correspondence from D.R.F Taylor pointing out omissions in the paper 13/9/69 pp. 19. Growth centers and rural development - a summary to notes and maps - draft. 20. Muranga district. 9 pp. typed, with illustrations and tables. 21. Principles and methods- sec. sch. Notes. These comprise of short summaries on various authors and works education and done at KSTC Kirksville, MO in March 1960 and includes comments by the		FF 10 FF 11 FF 12 FF 13 FF 14 FF 15 FF 16 FF 17 FF 18 FF 19 FF 20 FF 21 supervisor. 22. Pp.
--	---	--	---

	22. Draft of a paper on Iowa no title but topic centers around spatial systems 148 pages with handwritten notes and cancellations on an otherwise typed piece.		FF 22
	23. Economic and social development. Handwritten notes with tables.		FF 23
	24. Economic geography on Nairobi handwritten notes. These centers on land ownership and planning problems.		FF 24
	25. Public health and socio-economic development. These are handwritten notes on public health but comprises other topics such as wage employment, rural non-agricultural for various Kenyan districts. The topic toward a better life seems to recur. This also includes a mass of medical statistics, maps and graphs and all is handwritten.		FF 25
	26. SSRC conference on environmental cognition in Africa. UCLA a two page typed conference proposal and handwritten notes for the conference paper. 3-4 titles appear to be proposed.		FF 26
	27. Location of manufacturing industries- handwritten notes may be draft of paper.		FF 27
	28. Kenya: social and economic development. This is a draft with notes and figures relating to the above subject.		FF 28
	29. Journal of Eastern Africa Research and development, Vol. 2 .No.2, 1972. S.M. Kimani's paper entitled – The structure of land ownership in Nairobi.		FF 29